Services and products Ellerston Capital is authorised to provide

Ellerston Capital is authorised to provide financial product advice and deal in financial products of the following asset classes:

- Derivatives
- Foreign Exchange Contracts
- Interests in Managed Investment Schemes
- Securities

Ellerston Capital is also authorised to provide financial product advice in relation to deposit and payment products and government debentures, stocks or bonds. Ellerston Capital may operate registered managed investment schemes that hold derivatives and financial assets in its capacity as responsible entity and provide custodial and depository services.

These financial services may be provided to wholesale and retail clients.

Other documents you may receive

Before you can invest in one of our financial products you will receive a Product Disclosure Statement (PDS) or offer document containing information about the particular product to help you make an informed decision about that particular product.

Remuneration for the Financial Services we provide

If you invest in a product or service that we provide, as the product issuer or operator we will receive remuneration in relation to your investment. The fees may include management, performance, administration and entry or exit fees based on the amount you have invested in the product and/or how the product has performed. The fees and costs applicable to the products and services we offer are set out in the relevant PDS or offer document for the product or service.

We will not receive fees in respect of any general financial product advice we may provide with respect to Ellerston funds. The directors, employees and other associates of the Ellerston Capital group are remunerated by way of salary and may receive fees, for instance, for promoting a fund managed by Ellerston Capital. These persons may also be paid a performance based bonus for personal contributions to the success of Ellerston Capital or the financial products or services it offers. Where Ellerston Capital (or another member of the Ellerston Capital group) provides financial services to a third party product issuer, we are remunerated by receiving a fixed fee or a percentage share of the management and / or performance fees for the services and there is no additional cost to investors.

Relationships with other financial product issuers

Ellerston Capital acts on its own behalf when providing financial services to you. Where we, or a member of our group, provide financial services to third party product issuers, we may have a non-controlling equity interest in the third party. The relationship and any relevant interests will be disclosed in the offering documents issued by the third party.

Additional Information

Compensation arrangements

If Ellerston Capital breaches its legal obligations it may be under an obligation to pay compensation. Where we are liable to meet a claim, payment will generally be paid from our cash flows and available resources.

Professional Indemnity Insurance

Ellerston Capital holds professional indemnity insurance, which satisfies the requirements for compensation arrangements under section 912B of the Corporations Act (Cth) 2001. Subject to its terms and conditions, the policy provides cover for civil liability resulting from third party claims concerning the professional services provided by Ellerston Capital and its employees and representatives. This policy covers professional services provided by employees and representatives of Ellerston Capital while they are in our employ, even where that employee or representative has subsequently left our employ.

For claims we may rely on and claim under the professional indemnity insurances that we hold. These insurances are between us and the insurer and are intended to respond to civil liability resulting from significant claims for compensation made against us for financial services provided by us or our representatives. These insurances provide cover even if one of our representatives has ceased to act or work for us.

Your Privacy

Any personal information collected from you is used by us to provide financial services to you and comply with any relevant laws. If you do not provide your relevant personal information, we may not be able to provide the applicable financial service to you.

Privacy laws apply to our handling of personal information and we will collect, use and disclose your personal information in accordance with the Ellerston Capital privacy policy, which includes details about the following matters:

- The kinds of personal information collected and held
- How personal information is collected and held
- The purposes for which personal information is collected, held, used and disclosed
- How you may access personal information held about you and seek correction of such information
- How you may complain about a breach of the Australian Privacy Principles (APP), or a registered APP code (if any) that bind us, and how we will deal with such a complaint
- Whether we are likely to disclose personal information to overseas recipients and, if so, the countries in which such recipients are likely to be located if it is practicable for us to specify those countries.
